Navigating the service delivery system and futures planning for individuals with developmental disabilities can be overwhelming and confusing. Plans are in motion to initiate a new 1115 Medicaid Waiver that will drastically change the manner in which services are delivered in the next few years. East End Disability Associates is pleased to provide this informative series of free workshops facilitated by experts in the field to guide attendees through the challenges ahead.

The Cornell building is completely accessible. Lunch will be served and we are suggesting a $10 donation per workshop to cover these expenses. We can accommodate requests for those requiring Spanish translation assistance, ASL interpreters, and special diets. etc. Requests must be received in writing by no later than November 1, 2011. We look forward to seeing you.
